Gloria Brown Safeguarding Officer.

I would like to thank everyone for all your prayers, cards, well wishes, and assistance since my accident. I am progressing slowly, but surely. I expect to make, over time, a full recovery with only a small limitation of movement in my shoulder, however this will take time and lots of exercises.

Many of you have kindly offered lifts and I am now at the point where I have almost daily appointments for physio, hydro, outpatients and other back to work related appointments. I do not want to overburden any individuals and also recognise that many people would like to offer me some practical help. If you are able to assist me occasionally with a lift, and I have not yet been in touch asking for one, please can you ring me on my parish phone (8025 5685). I am looking forward to returning to work as soon as the Doctors will sign me back, Christine.

Gap Year Student We have been approached by a young woman who would like to give a year of her life to help us across the parish. Helena is about to finish her studies in Bath, and is planning on training as a teacher. We would commit to providing her with a family to live with. If you would like to know more please contact Paul Smith: paulsmith@parishcf.church or Rev. Ian Bird: ianbird@parishcf.church.

The Methodist Church Women's Fellowship are holding an 87th Anniversary Celebration on Tuesday 9th May at 2.30pm and welcome guests from other churches. If you would like to attend, please contact Barbara Hillier (8026 6786) by the 9th April.
